[Numb. 590]

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

From the Gentleman's Magazine for February last.

TURKEY.

FREQUENT Commotions happen at Constantinople among the Populace and Janissaries; and even the Dewan is divided into Parties, of which, one is for carrying on a vigorous War against the Persians, and the other, headed by Bashaw Osmin (formerly Count Bonneval, a Frenchman) for turning the Arms of the Porte against the Christians, but the former has hitherto prevailed.

RUSSIA.

The Grand Duke is perfectly recovered of the Small pox. The Austrians give out, that the Empress will accede to the Quadruple Alliance concluded at Warsaw, of which mention is made in the King's Speech (See Gazette Nov. 187.) and, in pursuance thereof, had given Orders for the March of 55,000 of her Troops for Germany; but others say, however that Alliance may turn out, these Troops will not stir without English Money.

DENMARK. SWEDEN.

We have nothing of Importance from Denmark, but we are informed from Hamburg, that great Remittances are made to Sweden, where they are very busy in building Ships for the Service of the House of Bourbon.

SPAIN.

The Queen takes all possible Measures for prosecuting the grand Design of procuring a Kingdom for the Infant Don Philip, to be formed out of the States of Parma and Placentia, and some other Territories of Lombardy; for that End is this Country continually exhausted of Men and Money, and the People pressed into the Service with a Violence unknown in former Reigns.

ITALY.

Count Gages, who, it was expected, would have entered Tuscany, has received Orders to march another Way. The Genoese, who were supposed to arm in Favour of the Spanish Pretensions, are at present embarrassed by an Insurrection of the Corseans. The Spaniards having been obliged to retire from Oneglia, for want of Provisions, were attacked, and great Numbers killed by the Militia.

GERMANY.

Several Actions have happened this Month between the two contending Parties, mostly to the Disadvantage of the Austrians, particularly near Ingolstadt, where the Garrison under Count Burzelow attempting to dislodge the French from some Posts near that Place, were repulsed with the Loss of 500 Men, and 8 Field Pieces. In Silesia also, where they had possessed themselves of the Town of Rastatt with 3000 Men, they were attacked by the Prussians, who killed or made Prisoners, except what was drowned, the whole Garrison. In the County of Glatz, the Prussians pretend to have gained a considerable Advantage, wherein a Body of 6000 Prussians, most Hussars, attacked and routed a Body of 12,000 Austrians, killing 900, and taking 300 Prisoners, with Four Pieces of Cannon; but the Austrian Accounts make their whole Loss amount to no more than 100 killed. On the other Hand, the French and Bavarians have quitted Amberg, so that the Queen of Hungary is in Possession of all the Upper Palatinate.

The young Elector of Bavaria has demanded the Title of King of Bohemia, but been that of Arch Duke of Austria, tho' his Title only in common with the Descendants of that House, according to the Custom of Germany. As to his future Conduct, some pretend that as the Court of Vienna is not inclined to grant him any Thing, not so much as to put him in Possession of his Hereditary Dominions 'till the Conclusion of a definitive Treaty, and the Bavarian Ministers find the Sweets of French Subsidies, his Highness will adhere to the Treaty of Frankfort. Besides it is scarce in this Elector's Power, however willing, to make a Peace, as the French have 25,000 Men in or near his Dominions, and talk high of their immense Charges in supporting his Father, and that they ought to keep the Places which they had subdued under Colour of the late Emperor's Title. It seems probable, therefore, that this Prince wants an Opportunity to extricate himself from these Difficulties; mean while the French King, under the Title of a Guarantee promises to protect the Liberties of the Germanick Body. But it is certain, that most of the Princes are really tired of such Protection, and are said to be forming a Neutral Army of 60,000 Men, to clear the Empire of Foreign Troops. The Elector of Metz has fixed the First Day of June for electing a King of the Romans, to be afterwards Emperor. The Grand Duke of Tuscany is to be crowned King of Bohemia, by which he will acquire a Vote in the Election, and 'tis probable will obtain the Crown before the Elector of Bohemia, but will scarcely carry it from the Elector of Saxony, if the French can bring that Prince to stand Candidate in their Interest. — The French Forces on the Lower Rhine are retiring before the Duke of Assemburg, who is advanced into the Duchies of Burgundy and Flanders, where he raises heavy Contributions, notwithstanding the Remonstrances of their sovereign the Elector Palatine. — The Count De Sade, the French Ambassador to the Elector of Cologne, and M. d'Agues, Aid de Camp to the French King, and formerly his Ambassador at Brussels, have been taken Prisoners by the Austrians.

FRANCE.

The King designs to command his Army in Flanders, which is to consist of 120,000 Men, with a Train of 150 Pieces of battering Cannon, and 60 Mortars, Marshal Count De Saxe is to command immediately under his Majesty. The Ministry are taken up in finding the necessary Sum, and Twenty Millions are demanded of the Clergy, besides a great Sum of the India Company, which must distress that Trade.

Whether his Most Christian Majesty is desirous to shew a Disposition to cultivate a good Understanding with the Queen of Hungary, or affects to appear a candid and generous Enemy, he has expressly order'd his principal Engraver to publish a beautiful Print of her Majesty, with the following Verse under it;

Fœmina fronte patet, ois pectus, dios decore,
which may be thus reduced in English,
Bright Female Beauty in her Face is seen,
Manly her Courage, and divine her Mien.

HOLLAND.

The States General have held frequent Councils since the Arrival of the Earl of Chatham, the Result of which is kept secret, tho' of such Importance as to put Mr. Trevelyan upon repairing to London and back again with more than common Hast, as if he went for Instructions to put the last Hand to the great Affair. Whatever it be, the Austrian Party seems elated, and the French as much discontented, at whose Menaces the Dutch appear no Way intimidated, but go on to raise new Force and augment their Garrisons, and though they cannot yet be prevailed on by any Inducement to declare War against France, are providing to act with Vigour for the Defence of their Allies and Frontiers.

Some insinuate, that his Britannick Majesty has agreed to assign over to their High Mightinesses, his Pretensions on East Frisia, which is claimed by the King of Prussia, on Consideration of some important Services which they are inclined to render to the Common Cause, but to which they, it seems, be hired.

LONDON,

LONDON, February 2.

A Court Martial was held on the 31st of January, on board his Majesty's Ship the Leicester in Portsmouth Harbour, PRESENT

James Stewart, Esq; Vice-Admiral of the Red, Henry Medley, Esq; Rear Admiral of the White, and the following Captains.

John Lee,	Fitzroy Henry Lee,
Edward Boscawen,	Peter Lawrence,
Henry Harcourt,	Solomon Gideon,
Harry Norris,	Thomas Broderick,
Francis Geary,	William Fielding,
Edward Prattis,	William Boys,
Edward Spragg,	John Hardy,
Patrick O'Hara,	Being duly sworn,

Enquiry was made into the Conduct of Capt. Miffys, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Hampton Court, for not engaging two French Men of War, which he fell in with in his late Cruise; as also into that of Capt. Griffin of the Capitaine; Capt. Brett of the Sunderland; and Capt. Fowkes who commanded the Dreadnought, during their late Cruise, they being present in the said Chafe, and how the said French Ships came to escape; and after a thorough Examination of the said Evidences produced by the said Captains; and inspecting into the Log Books of their respective Ships, the Court were unanimously of Opinion, that Capt. Miffys did his Duty as an experienced and good Officer, and as a Man of Courage and Conduct: That as Capt. Griffin, and all his Officers, judged the two ships which the Hampton Court and Dreadnought were in Chafe of, to be Merchant ships, Capt. Griffin is justified in bearing after the Ship he took; the Capitaine being the Leewardmost ship of the Four; and that Capt. Brett, and Capt. Fowkes, did their Duty, in every Respect. To which both Admirals, and every Commander above mentioned signed their Names.

At the same Court were tried the Officers of the Northumberland returned from their Captivity in France, and honourably acquitted, and the first Lieutenant had the Thanks of the Court for having discharged his Duty in a brave and prudent Manner; but the Master was sentenced to the Marbasia Prison, for Life.

Some Time hence may be published.

A choice and precious

COMMON-PLACE-BOOK,

OF sanctified Elegance, Wit, Metaphors and Similitudes; for Instance, "The blessed Light of God's Countenance is to the Believer the very Top and Cream of all Comforts; Those Worshippers of whom the World is not worthy; They must deny all sorts of self, sinful self and righteous self, relative self and Life itself, such Brats must be crucified." Tho' happy Persons had not been Worshippers FOR Life yet they had worked FROM Life: Who so often was a Mouth was God for you, and from God to you;

Cum multis aliis, quæ sunt perferenda longum est

Compiled from the Soul melting, Heart-dissolving and Sense confounding Writings of the present reigning and applauded Helders forth of Truth; but chiefly from the wondrous Works of that great Schollard and high learn'd TIMOTHY CHIT V.D.M. An-glican a Very Dull Minister (MARK) a very dull Minister: And more particularly from his late Funeral Harangue on the Death of that excellent Gracious, Dr. TRIBULATION SWITCH.

It was an ignorant Zeal that haunted him, But truly, wise, amiable and a faithful Brother, A Teacher, a Man by Reputation (then, That had a competent Knowledge of the Truth. Ben Johnston.

To which may be added
By Way of APPENDIX,
(collected from the last celebrated Performance)

A new History of
The DEVIL and his IMPS;
Wherein is demonstrated, That Satan vastly excels either Rhetor or Faux in shifting Shapes and Leger de Main; for behold, "He is both a cruel rapacious Lion and a cunning venomous Serpent, a furious great red" blue and green "Dragon" which breaths nothing but Rapture and Destruction. Now Satan is no Archer and tries every Arrow "in his Quiver" Sometimes by the Help of a little Scour and burnt Cork and "He will appear all in black like a black Devil as He is;" at other Times, wrapping himself in a white Sheet, "He will transform himself into an Angel of Light" Now He's Captain General Beelzebub at the Head of his Legions, "Mastabai, Tarniel and Barabael, like the King of Tybarnia with his Habergeons brimstone, blue and fiery.

N.B. The Whole will be equally curious and entertaining.
